Saturday 11th April 2020.

To all Air ACES members.

I, and all of the Air ACES ‘team’, hope that you, your families & friends, are well, in this current situation, and am coping OK in this ‘lock-down’.

The last Air ACES talk evening was on the 24th February 2020 - 7 weeks ago - doesn’t time ‘fly’. (Sorry about the pun). Providing all ‘turns out well’, it is planned to re-start the Air ACES talks on the 22nd June 2020 - but who knows?

Please keep looking at the Air ACES website - www.airaces.org.uk - where Andy is keeping as much detail up to date, as is possible.

If any members wish to write to me, at any time, my email address is david.airaces@hotmail.com. I look forward to receiving Emails from members, and I will do my utmost to reply to all. (Having a lot of time on my hands at present, this should not prove difficult).

‘The Team’ wish you ‘all of the very best’ for this Easter period, and hope that you and your families can make the best out of it, as is possible within the current climate.

Kind regards, David Batcock - chairman.
