by

Lorimer Burn

Lorimer Burn is returning to give another of his spectacular talks. This time he will be presenting 4 shorter stories all about helicopter flying.

First: Naval helicopter operations off Iceland during the ‘Cod Wars’.

Second: Helicopter flying in the Royal Navy, which will include a dramatic video of landing a Lynx helicopter on the small deck of a frigate in gale force winds.

Third: Helicopter operations to the North Sea Oil Rigs, including passenger ditching training & operations of the Sikorsky S61N and Chinook helicopters.

Finally: ‘Don’t fly through a thunderstorm’ - a story of an accidental flight into cumulonimbus cloud over Basingstoke, UK.
